1 The Court has read and considered the Notice of Motion and Motion for Entry of Protective 2 Order (the "Motion") filed by Richard A. Marshack, in his capacity as the Chapter 11 Trustee (the 3 "Trustee") of the Bankruptcy Estate ("Estate") of The Litigation Practice Group P.C., on May 2, 2024,
4 pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7026 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(1), 5 as Dk. No. 1164 ("Motion"), and has found good cause to grant the Motion.

6 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 7 1. The Motion is granted;
- 8 2. The below Protective Order shall apply to any contested matter arising 9 in the main bankruptcy case and in all adversary proceedings filed by or against Trustee, 10 present and future; and
- 11 3. Govern the discovery conducted therein.

12 PROTECTIVE ORDER

13 1. DEFINITIONS

14 1.1 "Confidential Information" as used in this Protective Order shall mean documents and 15 other information (regardless of how generated, stored or maintained) that a Party or non-party 16 reasonably believes to contain or reflect non-public financial or business information, bank records, 17 financial records, such as social security numbers, non-public financial or personal information of a 18 Party or non-party, account numbers, sensitive digital information and identifiers, information subject 19 to confidentiality agreements or provisions other than this Protective Order, and other non-public 20 research, development, or commercial information that derives value or avoids injury by virtue of not 21 being known to the public.

22 1.2 This "Action" is defined and hereby means any contested matter arising in the main 23 bankruptcy case and in all adversary proceedings filed by or against Trustee, present and future.

24 1.3 "Designating Party" means a Party or non-party that designates Confidential 25 Information during the Action.

26 1.4 "Receiving Party" means a Party that receives Confidential Information during the 27 Action.
28

1.5 “Party” or “Parties” means person or entity subject to this Protective Order.

2. SCOPE OF THIS PROTECTIVE ORDER

2.1 Unless otherwise ordered, this Protective Order shall govern certain documents and other products of discovery obtained in the Action from the Parties there to, and from third parties. As well as certain information copied or derived therefrom, excerpts, summaries or compilations thereof, including, but not limited to, documents voluntarily exchanged as part of early settlement discussions, documents produced pursuant to initial disclosures, requests authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure made applicable herein by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, answers to interrogatories, deposition transcripts, responses to requests for production, responses to requests for admission, subpoenas, affidavits, declarations, expert reports, and other such material and information as may be produced during the course of the Action and designated as Confidential Information.

3. DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

3.1 This Protective Order shall govern the production and handling of any Confidential Information in this Action. Any Party or non-party who produces Confidential Information in this Action may designate it as "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" consistent with the terms of this Protective Order. Whenever possible, the Designating Party must designate only those portions of a document, written discovery responses, deposition, transcript, or other material that contain the Confidential Information and refrain from designating entire documents. Regardless of any designations made hereunder, the Designating Party is not otherwise restricted from use or disclosure of its Confidential Information outside of this Action or for any business purposes. In addition, any Party may move to modify or seek other relief from any of the terms of this Protective Order if it has first tried in writing and in good faith to resolve its needs or disputes with the other Parties or Party as the case may be under the terms of this Protective Order. Further, nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent a Party from redacting documents consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and utilizing the documents as needed through-out the Action.

3.2 Application to Non-Parties: Before a non-party is given copies of documents or materials designated as Confidential Information or Attorneys' Eyes Only as permitted hereunder, it

1 must first sign an acknowledgment to be bound to these terms that is attached hereto as Exhibit A; if 2 it fails to do so, the Parties to this Action must resolve any such dispute before making disclosure of 3 designated information as permitted hereunder to the non-party. If a non-party wishes to make 4 designations hereunder, it must first sign attached Exhibit A.

5 3.3 Timing and Provisional Protection: Designations of Confidential Information may be 6 made at any time. To avoid potential waiver of protection hereunder, the Designating Party should 7 designate documents or materials containing Confidential Information at the time of production or 8 disclosure, including on the record during the taking of any deposition. Deposition testimony will be 9 deemed provisionally protected for a period of thirty (30) days after the transcript is released to the 10 Parties by the court reporter, although the Parties may agree at any time to different timelines of 11 provisional protection of information as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only as part of one or more 12 specific depositions. To retain any designations beyond the provisional period, a Designating Party 13 must designate specific pages and lines of deposition testimony before the provisional period has 14 expired. Such designations must be made in writing so that all counsel and court reporters may append 15 the designation to all copies of the transcripts.

16 3.4 Manner of Designation: Confidential Information may be designated hereunder in any 17 reasonable manner or method that notifies the Receiving Party of the designation level and identifies 18 with specificity the information to which the designation applies. If made verbally, the Designating 19 Party must promptly confirm the designation in writing. Whenever possible, the Designating Party 20 should stamp, affix, or embed a legend of "CONFIDENTIAL" or "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" on 21 each designated page of the document or electronic image that contains Confidential Information.

22 4. CHALLENGES TO DESIGNATED INFORMATION

23 4.1 In the event that a Receiving Party disagrees at any time with any designation(s) made 24 by the Designating Party, the Receiving Party must first try to resolve such challenge in good faith 25 on an informal basis with the Designating Party. The Receiving Party must provide written notice of 26 the challenge and the grounds therefor to the Designating Party, who must respond in writing to the 27 challenge within fifteen (15) days. At all times, the Designating Party carries the burden of 28 establishing the propriety of the designation and protection level. Unless and until the challenge is resolved by the Parties or ruled upon by the Court, the designated information shall remain protected under this Protective Order. The failure of any Receiving Party to challenge a designation does not constitute a concession that the designation is proper or an admission that the designated information is otherwise competent, relevant, or material.

5. LIMITED ACCESS/USE OF PROTECTED INFORMATION

5.1 Restricted Use: Information that is produced or exchanged in the course of the Action and designated under this Protective Order may be used for preparation for trial and preparation for any appeal of any and all matters in the Action, as well as related settlement negotiations, and for no other purpose, without the written consent of the Designating Party. No Confidential Information may be disclosed to any person except in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order, unless the parties are co-counsel or have entered into joint defense agreements. All persons in possession of Confidential Information agree to exercise reasonable care with regard to the custody, use, or storage of such information to ensure that its confidentiality is maintained. This obligation includes, but is not limited to, the Receiving Party providing to the Designating Party prompt notice of the receipt of any subpoena that seeks production or disclosure of any designated information and consulting with the Designating Party before responding to the subpoena. Any use or disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only information in violation of the terms of this Protective Order may subject the disclosing person or party to sanctions.

5.2 Access to "Confidential" Information: The Party(ies) and all persons subject to this Protective Order agree that information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" may only be accessed or reviewed by the following:

- a) The Court, its personnel, and court reporters;
- b) Counsel of record, or co-counsel for any Party, or other party that has entered into a joint defense agreement in the Action and their employees who assist counsel of record, or co-counsel in the Action and are informed of the duties and obligations imposed hereunder;
- c) The Parties, including their clients, agents and employees who are assisting or have reason to know of the Action;

d) Experts or consultants employed by the Parties or their counsel, or co-counsel, for purposes of an Action, so long as each such expert or consultant has signed attached Exhibit A; and

e) Other witnesses or persons with the Designating Party's consent or by court order.

5.3 Access to "Attorneys' Eyes Only" Designations: The Parties and all persons subject to this Protective Order agree that information designated as "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" may only be accessed or reviewed by the following:

a) The Court, its personnel, and court reporters;

b) Counsel of record, or co-counsel for any Party, or other party that has entered into a joint defense agreement in the Action and their employees who assist counsel of record in the Action and are informed of the duties hereunder;

c) In-house counsel for any Party in the Action and Richard A. Marshack, as Chapter 11 Trustee of The Litigation Practice Group P.C. who is informed of the duties and obligations imposed hereunder;

d) Experts or consultants employed by the Parties or their counsel, or co-counsel for purposes of the Action, and so long as each such expert or consultant has signed attached Exhibit A; and

e) Other witnesses or persons to whom the Designating Party agrees in advance of disclosure or by court order.

5.4 Non-Waiver Effect of Designations: Neither the taking of, nor the failure to take, any action to enforce the provisions of this Protective Order, nor the failure to object to any designation, will constitute a waiver of any Party(ies)'s claim or defense in the Action or any other action or proceeding, including, but not limited to, a claim or defense that any designated information is or is not Confidential, is or is not entitled to particular protection, or embodies or does not embody information protectable by law.

5.5 In-Court Use of Designated Information: If information designated under this Protective Order will or may be offered in evidence at a hearing or trial related to any matter in the Action, then the offering party must give advance notice to the party or non-party that designated prior to offering the information so that any use or disclosure may be addressed in accordance with

1 the Court's case-management or other pre-trial order, or by a motion in limine. Nothing in this 2 Protective Order shall be construed as a waiver by a Party of any objections that may be raised as to 3 the admissibility at trial of any evidentiary materials.

4 6. CLAW-BACK REQUESTS

5 6.1 Failure to Make Designation: If, at any time, a Party or non-party discovers that it 6 produced or disclosed Confidential Information without designation, it may promptly notify the 7 Receiving Party and identify with particularity the Confidential Information to be designated and the 8 level of designation (the claw-back notification). The Receiving Party may then request substitute
9 production of the newly-designated information. Within thirty (30) days of receiving the claw-back 10 notification, the Receiving Party must: (1) certify to the Designating Party it has appropriately marked 11 or, if substitute production has been requested, destroyed all unmarked copies that it received, made, 12 and/or distributed; and (2) if it was practicably unable to mark or destroy any information because 13 disclosures occurred while the Receiving Party was under no duty of confidentiality under the terms 14 of this Protective Order regarding that information, the Receiving Party must reasonably provide as 15 much information as practicable to aid the Designating Party in protecting the information, 16 consistently with the Receiving Party's attorney-client, work-product, and/or trial-preparation 17 privileges.

18 6.2 Inadvertent Production of Privileged Information: If, at any time, a Party discovers 19 that it produced information that it reasonably believes is subject to protection under the 20 attorney/client, work-product, or trial-preparation privileges, then it must promptly notify each 21 Receiving Party of the claim for protection, the basis for it, amend its privilege log accordingly, and 22 comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5). Whenever possible, the producing party must produce substitute 23 information that redacts the information subject to the claimed protection. The Receiving Party must 24 thereupon comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B) as to the information subject to the claimed 25 protection.

1 7. DURATION/CONTINUED RESTRICTIONS

2 7.1 Handling of Designated Information Upon Conclusion of the Main Bankruptcy Case:

3 Upon conclusion of the Main Bankruptcy Case, by way of dismissal or closing of the case, the 4 Designating Party(ies) is/are responsible for ensuring that any Party or person to whom the 5 Designating Party shared or disclosed designated information in any of the matters under the Action 6 returns or destroys all of its copies, regardless of the medium in which it was stored. No witness or 7 Party may retain designated information that it received from any other Party or non-party under this 8 Protective Order; only counsel of record, or co-counsel, are the authorized agents who may retain one 9 copy for their respective legal files, and who must also describe to the Designating Party the extra 10 steps taken to protect its legal file containing paper and/or electronic copies of the designated 11 information so that it is not accessed, used, or disclosed inconsistently with the obligations under this 12 Protective Order. This provision does not apply to the Court or Court staff. Moreover, this provision 13 does not apply to Trustee, who may retain and use – consistent with this Order – Confidential 14 Information received in any Action during the entirety of the Bankruptcy.

15 7.2 Continued Restrictions Under this Protective Order: The restrictions on disclosure and 16 use of Confidential Information shall survive the conclusion of the Bankruptcy case and any matter 17 in the Action.

18 8. PRIVILEGED OR PROTECTED INFORMATION

19 8.1 Nothing in this Protective Order shall require disclosure of information that is 20 protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work-product protection, or any other legally cognizable 21 privilege (a “Privilege or Protection”). If information subject to a claim of Privilege or Protection is 22 inadvertently produced, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) such production shall not 23 constitute a waiver of, or estoppel as to, any claim of Privilege or Protection for such information or 24 any other information that may be protected from disclosure by a Privilege or Protection in any 25 proceeding.

26 8.2 If a Party receives a document that appears to be subject to a Privilege or Protection, 27 then it shall refrain from examining the document any more than is essential to ascertain if it is 28 privileged or protected and shall promptly notify the producing Party in writing that the receiving

1 Party possesses material that appears to be subject to a Privilege or Protection. The producing Party 2 shall have seven (7) days after receiving such notice to assert a Privilege or Protection over the 3 identified material. If the producing Party does not assert a claim of Privilege or Protection within the 4 seven (7)-day period, the material in question shall be deemed not privileged or protected.

5 8.3 If a producing Party has produced a document subject to a claim of Privilege or 6 Protection, upon written request by the producing Party, the document for which a claim of Privilege 7 or Protection is made shall be sequestered or destroyed to the extent reasonably practicable, and the 8 receiving Party shall not use the document for any purpose other than in connection with analyzing 9 or disputing a claim of Privilege or Protection or in connection with a motion to compel the production 10 of the document.

11 8.4 The receiving Party sequestering or destroying such material may then move the Court
12 for an order compelling production of the material. The applicable producing Party bears the burden 13 of establishing the applicable Privilege or Protection of any clawed-back document or information as 14 and to the same extent that it would have borne such burden had it not produced the document or 15 information. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit the Court's right or any receiving Party's 16 right to request an in camera review of any information subject to a claim of Privilege or Protection.
